Section 1.01 Name. The name of this corporation shall be The American College of Psychiatrists (hereafter referred to as “The College” or “Corporation”).

ARTICLE II

OFFICES

Section 2.01 Principal Office. The principal office for the transaction of the activities and affairs of The College is located in Chicago, Illinois (the “principal office” or “Central Office”). The Board of Directors of The College (hereafter sometimes referred to as the “Board of Regents” or “Board”) may change the principal office from one location to another. Any change of the principal office shall be noted by the Secretary-General on these Bylaws opposite this section, or this section may be amended to state the new location.

Section 2.02 Other Offices. The College may also have offices at such other locations both within and without the District of Columbia as the Board may from time to time determine or the business of The College may require.

ARTICLE III

PURPOSES, LIMITATIONS AND PROHIBITIONS

Section 3.01 Purposes. The College is a District of Columbia non-profit corporation organized under the District of Columbia Non-profit Corporation Act (hereafter referred to as the “Act”). The College is organized exclusively for educational and scientific purposes, including the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law). In particular, the purposes of The College shall be:

- (i) To provide professional leadership, and promote, maintain, and support the highest standards in psychiatry through teaching, education, research and clinical practice;
- (ii) To provide an open and scientific forum for the discussion of subjects pertaining to the field of psychiatry and to encourage the best application and utilization of psychiatric knowledge, principles and treatment;
- (iii) To promote the exchange of ideas and opinions by members of The College of all aspects of professional psychiatric activity so as to equip each member to better serve his or her patients and society;
- (iv) To encourage those programs of education leading to increased public understanding and acceptance of psychiatry;
- (v) To foster the highest level of ethics in the practice of psychiatry in keeping with the finest traditions of medicine; and
- (vi) To confer honor and recognition on psychiatrists.

Without limiting the power that The College may lawfully exercise, The College shall have the power to take and receive funds from any source, including but not limited to the government of the United States, the governments of the States, local governments, charitable or educational organizations (including foundations), trade and professional associations, business corporations, partnerships, and individuals.

Consistent with the above, and except as provided in Section 3.02, below, The College may exercise all powers available to corporations organized under the Act.

Section 3.02 Limitations and Prohibitions Upon Powers and Activities.

(a) General. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, The College shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, carry on or engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of The College. Further, The College shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law); or (ii) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law).

(b) Property. The property, assets, profits and net income of The College are dedicated irrevocably to the purposes set forth in Section 3.01, above. No part of the net earnings of The College shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, regents, officers or other private persons, except that The College shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Section 3.01, above. Subject to the provisions and limitations of the Act and any other applicable laws, and subject to the limitations created by the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws, the property, business and affairs of The College shall be managed by its Board of Regents which may exercise all authority and powers and perform all functions of The College and such lawful acts and things as are not directed or required by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws to be exercised or performed by a person, committee or body under these Bylaws.

(c) Dissolution. Upon the winding up and dissolution of The College, the Board of Regents shall, after paying or adequately providing for the payment of all of the liabilities of The College, dispose of all of the assets of The College to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for educational or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law), in such manner as the Board of Regents shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of by the Board of Regents shall be disposed of by the appropriate court of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, to an exempt organization or to exempt organizations organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

(d) Political Activity. No substantial part of the activities of The College shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and The College shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements in connection with) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(e) Nondiscrimination. The College's policy is to comply faithfully with its legal obligations under federal and applicable state anti-discrimination laws.

(f) Conflict of Interest. Without limiting compliance with any code of ethics or conflict of interest policy of The College, any member of the Board or committee, officer, or key employee having an interest in a contract, other transaction or program presented or discussed by the Board or committee for authorization, approval, or ratification shall make a prompt, full and frank disclosure of his or her interest to the Board or committee prior to acting on such contract or transaction. Such disclosure shall include relevant and material facts known to such person about the contract or transaction that might reasonably be construed to be adverse to The College's interest. The body to which such disclosure is made shall thereupon determine, by majority vote, whether the disclosure shows that a conflict of interest exists or can reasonably be construed to exist. If a conflict is deemed to exist, such individual shall not vote on, nor use his or her personal influence on, nor be present for deliberations on such contract or transaction, except to present factual information or to respond to questions as deemed necessary by the Board or committee. A individual shall be deemed to have an "interest" in a contract or other transaction if he or she is the party (or one of the parties) contracting or dealing with The College, or is a director, trustee or officer of, or has a significant financial or influential interest in the entity contracting or dealing with The College.

(d) Upon two-thirds vote in favor of induction by the Board of Regents, the Secretary-General shall be instructed to issue a letter of invitation to the candidate, stating the time limit for acceptance. The candidate's sponsors shall be notified in writing of the Board's decision, whether such decision is favorable or not. Should the decision be unfavorable, the candidate's Sponsoring Fellows may request the Board of Regents reconsider its decision, provided, however, additional and supporting information first has been submitted to the Committee on Membership for its further consideration.

(e) In the event that the candidate in writing accepts the invitation to membership within the time permitted, he or she will thereupon be assigned a membership number.

(f) The official parchment shall be presented to the candidate by the President of The College at an induction ceremony at the annual meeting of the membership next succeeding acceptance by the candidate/inductee. (h) Notwithstanding subsections (a) – (d) set forth above, the Board of Regents, upon a unanimous vote by the members present at a quorum meeting, may in its sole discretion vote to induct an individual into The College as a Member or Fellow, or elevate an existing Member to Fellow. In the event of a unanimous vote, the Secretary-General shall issue a letter of invitation to the individual stating the time limit for acceptance, and the procedures set forth above in subsections (e) and (f) of this Section 4.04 shall still be followed.

Section 4.05 Resignation; Suspension or Termination of Membership.

(a) Members, Fellows, Founding Fellows, Charter Fellows, Honorary Fellows and Members/Fellows Emeriti/ae in good standing may resign from membership, effective the date set forth in a written notice of resignation to the Secretary-General. A resigned Member, Fellow, Founding Fellow, Charter Fellow, Honorary Fellow or Member/Fellow Emeritus/a may request reinstatement to membership in accordance with the procedures of the Committee on Membership.

(b) Members, Fellows, Founding Fellows and Charter Fellows who fail to attend at least one annual meeting of the membership in a consecutive three year period shall be terminated from membership, except in extraordinary and extenuating circumstances as determined in the sole judgment of the Board that attendance at any of the three consecutive meetings was excused.

(c) Newly elected Members and Fellows, except existing Members elevated to Fellow, who fail to attend at least one annual meeting of the membership within three years after the first annual meeting of the membership immediately succeeding their election, shall be terminated from membership, except in extraordinary and extenuating circumstances as determined in the sole discretion of the Board that attendance at any of the three consecutive meetings was excused.

(d) Subject to Section 5.01, membership of any individual shall be automatically suspended for failure to pay dues, if those dues remain unpaid for a 12 month period, and shall be automatically terminated if such dues remain unpaid for an additional 12 month period. The Treasurer shall inform the delinquent member in writing of his or her suspension or termination with appropriate reference to the applicable provisions of the Bylaws. A member suspended or terminated under this subsection may reapply for admission to membership in accordance with the procedures of the Committee on Membership.

(e) Except with respect to subsections (b)-(d) of this Section 4.05, membership of any individual shall be suspended or terminated by the Board of Regents in accordance with the Procedures for the Processing and Disposition of Complaints, as from time to time amended by the Board of Regents.

(f) Upon resignation, suspension or termination of membership, the Secretary-General shall request the return of the membership certificate from the individual who resigned or whose membership was suspended or terminated.

Section 4.06 Code of Ethics. Membership in The College requires adherence to the Code of Ethics, as from time to time amended by the Board of Regents. Complaints of alleged violation of the Code of Ethics of The College shall be handled consistent with the Procedures for the Processing and Disposition of Complaints, as from time to time amended by the Board of Regents.

Section 4.07 Good Standing. Individuals who are current in their obligation to pay dues, and who are not suspended, shall be in good standing with The College.

Section 4.08 Annual Meeting; Annual Business Meeting.

(a) There shall be an annual meeting of the membership of The College held each calendar year. The President, with the approval of the Board of Regents, shall

(b) Within the annual meeting there shall be a business meeting of the membership (the “Annual Business Meeting”). A quorum for the Annual Business Meeting shall be the members present in person or by proxy entitled to vote under these Bylaws. Members entitled to vote under these Bylaws may attend or vote by proxy on the form required by the Secretary-General. Subject to the provisions and limitations of the Act and any applicable laws, and subject to the limitations, if any, created by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the property, business and affairs of The College shall be managed by its Board of Regents, which shall exercise all powers of the Corporation except for any such powers that have been delegated to officers, agents or other individuals or entities.

Section 5.03 Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses. No individual shall receive any compensation for his or her services as a member of the Board. Reasonable expenses incurred by members of the Board in carrying out their duties and responsibilities may be reimbursed, if incurred pursuant to the written policies of The College. Nothing herein contained shall preclude a member of the Board of Regents from serving The College in a capacity other than as a member of the Board or a committee, or as an officer, and receiving compensation for such services.

Section 5.04 Removal of Members of the Board of Regents. Except as to subsections (ii), (iii), or (iv), below, where removal shall be automatic upon the happening of the event specified, and subject to applicable law, any member of the Board of Regents shall be removed from office by the membership entitled to vote upon a two-thirds vote of the members entitled to vote in person or by proxy at a meeting, the grounds for which are set forth below:

- (i) In the opinion of the membership, he or she has failed to properly perform the duties of the office, without prejudice to contract rights, if any, of the member or The College;

- (ii) The individual has pled guilty or nolo contendere to or has been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor punishable by incarceration for more than six (6) months and where the time for appeal has expired;
- (iii) The failure to attend at least seventy-five (75%) percent of the Board of Regents meetings held in a calendar year, unless otherwise excused (1) by the Board or (2) in advance by the Chair of the Board, in writing and recorded in the minutes of the meeting(s) for which attendance is excused;

(b) Resignation. A Regent may resign effective upon giving written notice to the President or Secretary-General of The College, unless such notice specified a later time for the resignation to become effective, provided, however, that if The College would be left without a duly elected Regent in charge of its affairs, such notice must be given to the District of Columbia Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs.

(c) Filling Vacancies. Each vacancy on the Board of Regents shall be filled by the Board to the now vacant position at the next meeting of the Board held after the event causing the vacancy or notice of resignation, subject to the approval of the members entitled to vote in person or by proxy at the next annual meeting of the membership.

Section 5.07 Place of Meetings and Meetings by Telephone. Meetings of the Board of Regents shall be held at the principal office of The College or at such other place as may be designated by the Board. Any meeting of the Board of Regents may be held by conference telephone or similar communication equipment, so long as all members of the Board participating in the meeting can hear one another. In such event, all members of the Board so participating shall be deemed to be present at such meeting.

Section 5.08 Regular and Special Meetings.

(a) Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Regents shall be held at least twice each year, approximately every six months, at a time and place determined by the President.

(b) Manner of Giving, Time and Contents for Notice of Regular Meetings.

(i) Manner of Giving Notice. Notice of the time and place of the annual or a regular meeting of the Board shall be given as provided in subsection (b)(ii), below.

(ii) Time Requirements for Notice of Regular Meetings. Notice of each regular meeting as provided herein, shall be given at least thirty (30) and no more than ninety (90) calendar days prior to such regular meeting, regardless of the manner of giving notice. The Secretary-General shall be responsible for sending notices of regular meetings.

(iii) Contents of Notice of Regular Meetings. Any notice of a regular meeting of the Board of Regents, in addition to the purposes of such meeting as provided in these Bylaws, shall specify the reason(s) for the meeting, but such meeting shall not be limited to the reason(s) set forth in the notice. Without limiting the foregoing, any member of the Board may introduce a motion of new business at any regular meeting by providing the Secretary-General with a copy of the motion sufficiently in advance for inclusion on the agenda for the next regular meeting.

(c) Special Meetings.

(i) Authority to Call. Special meetings of the Board of Regents may be called at any time by the President or by any six members of the Board, two of whom shall be officers.

(ii) Manner of Giving Notice. Notice of the time and place of a special meeting shall be given to each member of the Board of Regents by one of the following methods:

1. by personal delivery of written notice;
2. by first class mail, postage prepaid;
3. by telephone, either directly to the member or to a person at the member's office who would reasonably be expected to communicate that notice promptly to the member;
4. by e-mail; or
5. by telegram, charges prepaid.

All such notices shall be given or sent to the member's address, e-mail address, or telephone number as shown on the records of The College.

(iii) Time Requirements for Notice. Notices sent by first class mail shall be deposited in the United States mail at least seven (7) business days before the time set for the meeting. Notices given by personal delivery, telephone, e-mail or telegraph shall be delivered, e-mailed or given to the telegraph company at least three (3) business days before the time set for the meeting.

(iv) Notice Contents. The notice shall include the date, time, place of meeting and a specific statement of the purpose of the meeting. The required notice is waived if all of the members of the Board of Regents sign written waivers of notice or if they attend the meeting at the designated time and place and their attendance is recorded in the minutes.

Section 5.09 Quorum; Adjournment; Manner of Voting; Prohibition of Proxies.

At all meetings of the Board of Regents, the presence of at least nine members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

A majority of the members of the Board present at the time and place of a regular or special meeting, although less than a quorum, may adjourn the meeting without further notice until a quorum shall be present. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the original meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours, the members of the Board absent from the adjourned meeting shall be provided written notice of such adjournment, and the date, time, and place of any re-scheduled meeting. In the event one or more members of the Board who are present at a meeting recuse themselves from voting and/or temporarily absent themselves from the meeting as required by applicable law or these Bylaws, the votes of a majority of the remaining disinterested members, even though the remaining disinterested members present shall be less than a quorum, shall constitute the action of the Board of Regents.

At all meetings of the Board of Regents, each member shall have one vote. A member of the Board of Regents may not attend or vote by proxy.

Section 5.10 Parliamentary Authority Governing Meetings of the Board of Regents. The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order, Revised shall govern the meetings of the Board of Regents, to the extent such rules are not inconsistent with these Bylaws or the procedural rules of The College.

Except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Regents may be taken without a meeting if all the members of the Board consent in writing to that action. Such written consent shall have the same force and effect as any other validly approved action of the Board of Regents. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. For the purpose of this Section 5.11 only, "all the members of the Board" shall not include members of the Board who have a material financial interest in a transaction to which The College is a party.
